

AUTHORIZATION TO RELEASE STUDENTS DURING PARENT REUNIFICATION

School: _____

Student: _____

During certain emergencies, it might be necessary for schools to hold all students in an area and then release them to parents/guardians and other designated individuals one by one. This process is called Parent Reunification. Schools will only release students to individuals listed on this form.

1. The person must present photo identification.
2. The person must be listed on this form.

The school is authorized to release my child to the following individuals. Do not forget to list all parent/guardian names (as indicated below). This list of authorized individuals may be updated at any time by the child's custodial parent or guardian by requesting the change through the principal's office.
